Excerpt from The Message of Thomas A Kempis Of these two influences - that of Reason and that of Living Example - which would a wise reformer reinforce? Christ chose the last. He gathered all men into a common relation to Himself, and demanded that each should set Him on a pedestal of his heart, giving a lower place to all other objects of worship, to father and mother, to husband or wife. In Him should the loyalty of all hearts centre; He should be their pattern, their Authority and Judge. - Ecce Homo. It is the work of a mind of extreme originality and power: and it is also the work of a very religious man: Thomas a Kempis had not a more solemn sense of things unseen and of what is meant by the Imitation of Christ. - Dean Church's Review of Ecce Homo (1866). The world-famous little book called The Imitation of Christ opens with these words: Whosoever followeth after Me walketh not in darkness, saith the Lord. These are the words of...
