Excerpt: .this victory will be the vindication of human nature and the restoration of its honor and dignity. More and more will this be seen when the degrading idea of a Heaven to be purchased by fawning and wheedling and all manner of spiritual abasement, shall have passed away. Kindness is the word for the Christmas of the new spirit--for the world has outgrown that species of Christianity which, in the words of Swift, made people hate instead of love one another. Not the selfish kindness which regards only a narrow circle, but the true Christian kindness which goes out to the poor and the stranger, and which is boundless as charity itself. Let us, every one, contribute to make of Christmas a grand festival of love and humanity; forgiving without hypocritical reservation those who have wronged or injured us, if they persist not in...
