Excerpt: .and Gross, 98, manage to tear themselves away from their business in Philadelphia, now and then long enough to give us a brief call. Bros. Perley and Edmonston, 98, have also been welcome guests at the ever open chapter house. Bro. Mott, of Cornell, was forced to accept our hospitality for a much longer period than he intended during the February blizzard owing to the blocking of trains. The third annual Ekklessia of Phule IV was an unqualified success, though the absence of a number of delegates from Sigma Deuteron and Beta chapters rendered the attendance a little small. Bro. Vernon, of Nu Deuteron, Bro. Stier, of Sigma Deuteron, and Bro. Pierce, of Beta Chi, were present and their remarks were highly appreciated. Our heartiest thanks are due to the brothers of Beta chapter for the splendid pictures presented to Beta Chi. With best...
