On which day, being the first meeting of this General Assembly, pursuant to the appointment of the late Convention, the members who appeared having taken the oath directed by law, which was administered by the Privy, Council, repaired to their seats in the House of Delegates. Mr. Treasurer reminded the House of the necessity of proceeding to the choice of a Speaker, and moved that Edmund Pendleton, Esq who had before presided over the Convention with ability and integrity, should take the chair of the House as Speaker; and thereupon the said Edmund Pendleton, Esq. was elected without opposition, and conducted to the Chair, from whence he made his acknowledgments to the House for the honour they had again conferred on him. Ordered, That the several officers of the late Convention be...
