Excerpt: . . . If a claimants application for benefits is successful, the representative 5 may receive a portion of the claimants past-due benefits as a fee, provided the representative has received authorization from SSA to receive this fee.

Representatives typically seek such authorization by entering into a fee agreement with the claimant, which then must be submitted to SSA for approval. Under an approved fee agreement, a representative receives 25 percent of the claimants past-due benefits, up to a maximum of 5, 300. In some cases, the representative may instead seek this authorization through a fee petition, which requires the representative to itemize his or her expenses and hourly charges and lets SSA determine a reasonable fee. Since 1967, for attorneys representing DI claimants, SSA has withheld fees from claimants past-due benefits and paid the attorneys directly - guaranteeing the attorneys payment of their fees. By contrast, nonattorney representatives and attorneys representing SSI claimants have historically had to...
