If their further perusal shall give you pleasure, and deepen the recognition that we owe duties to our brown companion, the Maori, the object which I set myself will have been abundantly attained. And that is why I offer no apology for casting this venture upon the waters of public approval, to sink or float as the measure of its merit shall ordain. And just this more: To the many unknown friends who have comforted me with private letters of appreciation, and to whom because of their number it was impossible to reply, my grateful remembrance abideth for ever.
