Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed the: (1) Department of Defense (DOD) and the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) procedures for retaining service medical records after a service member is discharged; and (2) reasons that some records may be hard to find. GAO noted that: (1) the services have implemented new procedures to transfer records directly to VA when a service member is discharged; (2) the possibility of medical records being misplaced remains because there are still many storage locations within the new system; (3) there are about 1,100 Persian Gulf claims pending, of which 37 percent are over 1 year old, 33 percent are 6 months to 1 year old, and 30 percent are less than 6 months old; and (4) VA has been unable to obtain service medical records for 20 veterans who have filed compensation claims with the Louisville VA Regional Office. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
