It was agreed that the topic for discussion at the next meeting should be a continuation of this subject, the Revision of the National Formulary. W. H. Harrison, who had been prevented from presenting his paper on the Flavors of the National Formulary, has agreed to present it at the next meeting. Mr. Bruder will contribute a paper on the Criticism of the Formulas of the National Formulary. Mr. Scheips will endeavor to answer the question of the Sub-Committee regarding the necessity for the addition of Alcohol as a preservative for emulsions that are to be kept for a few weeks, and also whether 40 per cent emulsions separate as quickly as do the 50 per cent kind. At the next meeting, which will be held Tuesday, December 21, the nomination of officers for the coming year will be...
