( A S we have mentioned in the previous lesson, 11 I tne re s a general resemblance between the I manifestation of Mental Influence, known as Fascination, and that known as Hypnotic Influence. In the manifestation known as Fascination, the influence is exerted solely by ThoughtWaves passing from mind to mind without a physical medium or channel other than the ether. In Hypnotic Influence, on the contrary, the influence is heightened by means of passes, strokings or eye-influence. In Hypnotic Influence the mind of the person affected, whom we shall call the subject, is rendered passive by a flow of mental energy calculated to render it more or less drowsy or sleepy, and therefore less calculated to set up powers of resistance to the Thought-Waves of the person using the influence. But the power employed is the same in...
