We love to gaze upon Niagara, as it heaves its ponderous mass of waters upwards to the sun, until the glittering arch breaks in varied splendor to the eye; or, while hanging over its awful depths, the soul is stirred by the echoes of the Almighty s voice, in its everlasting thunder: None can stand under the shadow of Mont Blanc, crowned with its diadem of unfading snow, and watch the lances of light as they quiver upon its summit, in dazzling and ever shifting pomp, and not feel all the kindling sublimities of the scene: While musing on the shore of ocean, and the eye can find no limit to its expanse, imagination exults in the boundless swell of its magnificence: So thus, in the presence of a superior intellect, the heart is lifted up with ennobling inspirations, each conception is vivified and enlarged, 4 ays of immortality burst and flame around us, and the whole man bows to the majesty of the intellectual God! We have assembled, fellow-citizens, to-night, to trace the career of one of those mighty intellects of the nation, which, by the eloquent flow of its thought, and the majestic sway of its reason, has thrilled and moved present generations, and which is destined to rouse, inflame, exalt, and animate all the generations of men which are to come after us.
