The Wind at My Back: A Memoir of a 20th Century Life (Paperback)

By John B. Mannion

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This fast-paced memoir spans a major part of the 20th Century. The author is a retired national association executive who set out to tell the fascinating story of his life for his family and descendants. Born in 1931 in the Pennsylvania coal region and now living in Colorado, John B. Mannion describes his early family life and carries us along through a life lived on the fringes of the great events of the last century. The Wind at My Back describes, in swift prose, the author's Irish-American family and school life during the poor but peaceful years that preceded the Second World War and the events that shaped him as a young man. After pitching kitchen gadgets on the boardwalk of Atlantic City at age 17 with Ed McMahon, later of The Tonight Show, and then forming a night club comedy act with another World War II veteran, the author joined the Army during the Korean War. Mannion recounts with humor and fondness his adventures in Europe and at Fort Knox, where he earned an officers commission...
